Digital Job Fair Connects Youth to Employment

HILLSBOROUGH & PINELLAS COUNTIES (May 3, 2016) – CareerSource Pinellas and CareerSource Tampa Bay, the region's leading workforce development organizations, will host a Virtual Job Fair dedicated to young adults ages 16 to 24 to connect with employers looking to fill their positions. The Virtual Job Fair will run from May 8 – 14, 2016 at vif.careersourcepinellas.com.

Hiring employers looking to fill their entry-level positions in various industries are invited to participate. Since its inception in 2008, this event has attracted thousands of bright young adults seeking full-time, part-time, and summer employment opportunities. During this week-long event, participating employers will be able to find young talents with the necessary skills set to meet the position requirements – without ever leaving their office. There is no cost to participate and the process is easy.

Job seekers can connect with over 100 companies from the convenience of their laptop, tablet or smartphone through this online event. Young adults ages 16 to 24 are encouraged to register for the online job fair by visiting vif.careersourcepinellas.com. Participants needing assistance with creating a resume can visit any of the centers located throughout Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties. Resources for resume and cover letter writing, interviewing skills, and career planning are also available on the Virtual Job Fair website.
