TD Charitable Foundation Supports WorkNet Pinellas with Donation

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA- January 13, 2014 – The TD Charitable Foundation, the charitable giving arm of TD Bank, America’s Most Convenient Bank[®], recently donated a total of $5,000 to WorkNet Pinellas as part of the Foundation’s commitment to giving back to the community.

As a regional workforce board for the State of Florida, WorkNet Pinellas delivers workforce solutions to support economic development for Pinellas County. The funds from the TD Charitable Foundation will support WorkNet’s Science, Technology, Engineering and Math Training for Emerging Careers (STEM TEC) initiative. The initiative focuses on youth training in STEM fields. The core mission of STEM TEC is to develop new STEM workers for projected shortages in key science, energy, healthcare and technology related industries within Pinellas County and the Tampa Bay region. WorkNet partners with local industry, educational institutions, training facilities, agencies and businesses to develop and implement the STEM TEC program.

“WorkNet recognizes that today’s youth play an important role in workforce development,” said Edward Peachey, president and CEO of WorkNet Pinellas. “It is imperative for the future of a variety of local, regional, and statewide industries to revitalize STEM education and increase the number of students who choose STEM majors and careers.”
